Insolvency: A glossary of terms

This information sheet (INFO 41) briefly explains some of the terms you may come across in company insolvency proceedings.

Please note that this glossary is for general guidance only. Many of the terms have a specific technical meaning in certain contexts that may not be covered here.

Glossary of insolvency terms

Term	Meaning
ARITA	The Australian Restructuring Insolvency & Turnaround Association – an organisation in Australia for insolvency professionals. Formerly known as the Insolvency Practitioners Association of Australia.
Asset	Any property of value owned by a person. Can include tangible and intangible assets.
Bankruptcy	An insolvency procedure that applies to a natural person, not to a company.
Circulating asset	Assets (e.g. trading stock, debtors) that a company is usually able to use, dispose, and deal with in the ordinary course of business without the need to obtain the secured creditor's consent.
Circulating security interest	A security interest held by a secured creditor in circulating assets of a company. Previously known as a floating charge.
Collateral	Assets that are secured by a security interest and include personal and real property.
Committee of inspection	A small group of creditors, or their representatives, usually appointed by the creditors of a company in external administration to assist and advise the external administrator. The committee of inspection monitors the conduct of the external administration, may approve certain steps in the administration and may give directions to the external administrator. The external administrator must have regard to, but is not always required to comply with such directions.
Committee (convened under Schedule 2 of the Act)	A committee convened by ASIC under Schedule 2 to the Corporations Act 2001 (Corporations Act) to either consider an application by a person to be registered as a liquidator or to consider conduct issues to decide whether to impose disciplinary sanctions against a registered liquidator.
Compromise	Agree to accept a lesser sum in full payment of a debt.
Contingent asset	An asset that might arise if a certain event occurs (e.g. a current legal action being taken by a company might result in an asset if the company wins the case).
Contingent liability	A liability that might arise if a certain event occurs (e.g. a current legal action against a company might result in a liability if the company loses the case).
Contributory	A shareholder who may be liable to contribute towards a company's debts in a liquidation if their shares are not fully paid.
Controller	A person appointed by a secured creditor to deal with assets subject to a security interest. This includes a receiver and a receiver and manager.

Term	Meaning
Court liquidation	A liquidation that starts as a result of a court order, made after an application to the court, usually by a creditor of the company.
Creditor	A person who is owed money.
Creditors' trust	A separate legal arrangement set up to deal with creditor claims. Creditor claims can be transferred to a creditors' trust as part of a deed of company arrangement.
Creditors' voluntary liquidation	A liquidation for insolvent companies, initiated by the company.
Debenture	A document acknowledging that a company undertakes to repay a sum of money lent to the company by the holder of the document.
Debt	An amount owed.
Debtor	A person who owes a debt.
Declaration of indemnities	A declaration that must be provided to creditors by a voluntary administrator or a liquidator in a creditors' voluntary liquidation informing creditors about any indemnities given to the voluntary administrator or liquidator to cover fees or other debts incurred by them in acting as voluntary administrator or liquidator of the company. The declaration provides information to enable creditors to make an informed decision about whether they wish to replace the voluntary administrator or liquidator over concerns about independence.
Declaration of relevant relationships	A declaration that must be provided by a voluntary administrator or a liquidator in a creditors' voluntary liquidation informing creditors about certain relationships. The declaration provides information to enable creditors to make an informed decision about whether they wish to replace the voluntary administrator or liquidator over concerns about independence.
Deed administrator	The external administrator appointed to oversee a deed of company arrangement.
Deed of company arrangement	A binding arrangement between a company and its creditors governing how the company's affairs will be dealt with, which may be agreed to as a result of the company entering voluntary administration. Aims to maximise the chances of the company, or as much as possible of its business, continuing, or to provide a better return for creditors than an immediate winding up of the company, or both.
Director	A natural person appointed as a director of a company who is then responsible for directing and managing the affairs of a company. Also includes a shadow director.
Dividend	A share of the profit of a solvent company paid to shareholders. Also used to describe a sum paid to creditors out of the assets of an insolvent company.
Eligible employee creditor	A creditor (including the Australian Taxation Office in respect of the superannuation guarantee charge) who, in a winding up of a company, would normally be paid their employment-related entitlements in priority to other unsecured debts. These creditors are given a special right to vote on a deed of company arrangement proposal that seeks to modify their priority.
Eligible unsecured creditor	A creditor who is entitled to have a say in a pooling determination made by a liquidator. The term generally covers the external unsecured creditors of the group, but excludes debts owing between companies in the pooled group. A pooling determination relates to a decision to treat the affairs of a group of companies as if it were a single external administration.
Excluded employee	An employee who has also been a director of the company, or a relative of a director, at any time in the 12 months before the appointment of an external administrator. Excluded employees are entitled to only limited priority for repayment of their outstanding entitlements.
External administrator	A defined term for an external person formally appointed to control the affairs of a company and its property. Includes a provisional liquidator, liquidator, voluntary administrator and an administrator under a deed of company arrangement.

Term	Meaning
FEG	The Fair Entitlements Guarantee – an Australian Government payment scheme administered by the Department of Employment to assist employees who have lost their jobs as a result of their employer’s liquidation or bankruptcy and are owed employee entitlements. The FEG operates in relation to claims for assistance for certain unpaid employee entitlements for all employer liquidations and bankruptcies that occur on or after 5 December 2012.
GEERS	The General Employee Entitlements and Redundancy Scheme – an Australian Government payment scheme to assist employees who have lost their jobs as a result of their employer’s liquidation or bankruptcy, and are owed certain employee entitlements. GEERS operates in relation to claims for assistance for certain unpaid employee entitlements for all employer liquidations and bankruptcies that occurred before 5 December 2012.

Realise	Convert assets into cash, often by selling them.
Receiver	A natural person appointed by a secured creditor to realise enough of the assets subject to their security interest to repay the secured debt. Less commonly, a court may appoint a receiver to protect the company's assets or to carry out specific tasks. A receiver is required to be a registered liquidator.
Receiver and manager	A receiver who has, under the terms of their appointment, the power to manage the company's affairs.
Receivership	An insolvency procedure where a receiver, or receiver and manager, is appointed over some or all of the company's assets.
Report as to affairs	A prescribed form required to be completed by the directors and secretary of a company in liquidation, voluntary administration or receivership, giving details of the company's assets and liabilities, and the identities of the creditors and debtors.
Reviewing liquidator	A registered liquidator appointed by ASIC or the court to carry out a review into a matter that relates to the external administration of a company. Creditors may appoint a reviewing liquidator to review an external administrator's remuneration and expenses incurred during the external administration.
Secured creditor	A creditor who holds a security interest in some or all of a company's property.
Security interest	A form of security taken by a creditor over company assets, including personal property and real property (previously known as a charge). Personal property includes tangible and intangible property other than real property (e.g. motor vehicles, equipment, intellectual property and company shares). A mortgage and a hire purchase agreement are each a type of security interest.
Shadow director	A natural person not on the public register as a director of a company but who directs and manages the company's affairs and is taken by the Corporations Act to be a director.
Tangible asset	An asset with a physical form (e.g. stock or real estate).
Uncommercial transaction	A transaction that was unreasonable for a company to have entered into. It may be able to be set aside by the company's liquidator provided it occurred within two years prior to the winding up, and when the company was insolvent or if the company became insolvent by entering into the transaction.
Unfair preference	A payment made or other benefit given to a creditor by an insolvent company which causes that creditor to be in a more favourable position than other unsecured creditors in a liquidation. The company's liquidator can seek to recover an unfair preference provided it occurred within six months prior to the liquidation, and when the company was insolvent or if the company became insolvent by making the payment or giving the benefit.
Unsecured creditor	A creditor who does not hold a security interest over a company's property.
