Applicant and nominee	The application for deregistration may be made by the company; a director or member of the company; or a liquidator of the company. If the company is the applicant, then a person must be nominated to receive the notice of deregistration. The full name and address of this nominee must be provided.
Declaration	The reference to 'outstanding liabilities' in the Declaration includes unpaid employee entitlements such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • annual leave • long service leave • payment in lieu of notice • redundancy pay, and • wages. All statements in the Declaration must be correct. Making a false declaration to ASIC is an offence.
Signature	This form must be signed by the applicant for deregistration. The applicant can be: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • the company (a director or secretary can sign if the applicant is the company), or • a director or member of the company, or • a liquidator of the company.
Lodging period	None prescribed — as required.
Lodging fee	A lodgement fee applies to this form. You must include the lodgement fee with this form or your application will not be considered. For information on fees refer to www.asic.gov.au/forms. If your application is rejected we will not refund your application fee. A new application fee is required with any subsequent application.
Conditions for voluntary deregistration	Read Information Sheet 25 Voluntarily deregistering a company at www.asic.gov.au/infosheets for information on when and how you can voluntarily deregister a company. A condition for approval of voluntary deregistration is payment of all the money that the company owes ASIC. If you use one of our online lodgement systems, you can check to see if your company owes us any money; otherwise, check with your registered agent or contact us on 1300 300 630. Payment of any money owing must be submitted with the application.
When your application is approved	Once we receive and approve the application, we will publish a notice of the proposed deregistration on the Published notices website at insolvencynotices.asic.gov.au. If the company's annual review date falls within two calendar months before or after the date on which the notice is published on insolvencynotices.asic.gov.au, you will not have to pay the current year's annual review fee. Your company's annual review date is shown on your company statement.
