Possible misconduct

4. Are you reporting possible misconduct?

- Yes

If yes:

Before selecting the form of possible misconduct in questions 4.1 and 4.2 below, please read Schedule D to Regulatory Guide 16 with respect to the sections of the Act listed, what is likely to constitute a breach of the relevant section, and the evidence needed to prove such a breach. Please be aware that ASIC may ask you to provide a supplementary report addressing in detail the possible misconduct reported and we may later require further evidence or statements from you for Court purposes.

Questions 4.1 and 4.2 below cover criminal offences and breaches of civil obligations respectively. Please note that if a relevant criminal offence has been selected at question 4.1, the relevant civil breach can also be selected at question 4.2 if the factual circumstances amount to both a criminal offence and a breach of civil obligations at the same time. However, some misconduct will only amount to a breach of civil obligations and will not constitute a criminal offence.

- No - Go to question 8
